Terms and Conditions

1 There is no theme for the competition, so you can choose any subject you wish.

2 £10 entrance fee is payable for each piece of work submitted and must be included with your work and application form before the submission date of Thursday 30th April 2026. The exhibition will be held between Saturday 2nd to Sunday 31st May 2026. The entrance fee is non-refundable unless we are unable to hold the exhibition.

3 Work must not have been displayed or exhibited before.

4 There is no size limitation. If however your piece is large, you will have to supply your own display (for example a quilt stand if you submit a quilt).

5 Our hanging system does have a weight limitation, so if your work is particularly heavy, please contact us to discuss hanging requirements.

6 Please indicate in the box provided on the front page if you will be supplying staging. Your work will be refused entry if Craft Arena feels any staging supplied by you does not meet Health and Safety requirements with no refund of your entrance fee. Any staging needs to be submitted with your work.

7 You may use any technique you wish e.g., textiles, paint, drawing, mixed media,sculpture, embroidery, cross stitch, through to lace making, silk painting, printmaking and collage.

8 All work must be ready to hang with eyelets and hanging wire. If attachments for hanging need to be added by Craft Arena, a £5 charge per item will be made, payable before the work is hung.

9 No responsibility will be taken for damage to exhibits if hanging attachments need to be added or if hanging attachments provided by you fail.

10 Monies raised by the entrance fee will be divided between the prizes for the entrants, customers who vote in the competition and a donation to St. Luke's Hospice.

11 Work must be collected by 4pm on Saturday 6th June 2026. Any work not collected by this time (apart from by prior arrangement) will be disposed of.

12 We do not take commission from any items sold although a 5% administration charge will be applied. This will be deducted from the proceeds. Work not for sale must be indicated on the entry form.

13 Craft Arena reserves the right to increase the asking price of work without consultation if it is felt the work has been undervalued. No reduction in valuation will be made without consultation with the artist.

14 Whilst every care will be taken with the exhibits while they are in the possession of Craft Arena, items are not insured and remain the responsibility of the exhibitor.

15 I give my permission for images of work from the exhibition to be displayed on the Craft Arena website, in our newsletter and Social Media. (If you do not wish pictures of your work to be published in this way please let us know)
